GEN. SHERMAN'S VIEWS ON THE WAR AND THE PRESENT SITUATION.—The Legislature of Louisiana having passed resolutions of thanks to Gen. Sherman and his army, the General responded in the following letter:

HEADQUARTERS MILITARY DIVISION OF THE MISSISSIPPI, IN THE FIELD, GOLDSBORO, N. C.,
April 5, 1865.

To his Excellency Michael Hahn, Governor of Louisiana, New Orleans—DEAR SIR:—I had the honor to receive your letter of March 3d, enclosing the engrossed copy of the resolutions of the Legislature of Louisiana, approved March 3, 1865. I will publish them in General Orders to the army, and think that it will be a source of pride for the officers and men to see the deep interest that is felt in them by the constituted authorities of your favored State.

I thank you kindly for recalling to me the events that attended me at Alexandria at the outset of this war. No man not actually present at the South can comprehend the toils and snares laid by old wily and mischievous traitors to ensnare the young and credulous. Truth was perverted, prejudices kindled into a wild passion, and a false pride begotten, calculated to mislead the youth and even old men into a belief that the whole fabric of our Government was weak and tottering, and was about to fall with a crash that would ruin all who clung to its fortunes. I cannot pretend to superior wisdom, but in the retirement of the pine woods of Rapids Parish, my day dreams still rested on the high seas, in California, on the broad plains of Kansas, the majestic Valley of the Mississippi, and the Atlantic slopes, where I had roved in former days, everywhere realizing the fact that our General Government was kind and paternal, and that its faults, if any, rose from an excess of leniency and forbearance, and I could not be made to believe that it should yield the destiny of our future to the guidance of the few discontented demagogues of the South, or its conceited cotton planters and negro owners.

I am willing to say, however, that I regarded the Constitution as a bargain, that we of the North should respect slave property, without going into its abstract merits or defects; and had the Southern people abided by the common laws and tribunals would have fought to maintain such property, but the moment they ignored the contract and appealed to war, we were no longer bound in law or honor to respect that obnoxious species of property. As soon as war is over, I believe that good men can readjust the affairs of this country so that slaves will never again be bought and sold, and yet the labor of all be directed again to the development of the vast agricultural wealth that lies in the fertile fields of the South. Accept my hearty thanks for considering me still a citizen of Louisiana, and I beg you to foster and encourage all its native population to adapt their thoughts and feelings to the new order of things, which will soon efface the dread ravages of war, and make Louisiana once more the safe guardian of the outlet of the mightiest river on earth.

W. T. SHERMAN, Maj. Gen.

MRS. LINCOLN.—Deep sympathy is felt everywhere for the lady who has lost, without a warning, the warm heart, the [illegible] voice, the steady judgment and the protecting arm that was for many years her devoted husband, and the good father of her children. Not only is she almost without relatives, but she has few, from the peculiarity of her position, to sympathise with that freedom which makes weeping a relief to the overloaded heart. President Johnson, with a delicacy which reflects high honor upon him, has urged her to remain at the Executive Mansion until her health shall have sufficiently restored to enable her to journey homeward—and he will probably establish himself temporarily in the house of Hon. Samuel Hooper, the [illegible] representative from Boston. Let the people see that the widow of Abraham Lincoln does not want, and let her sons be cared for until they can support themselves.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

POISONING.—An advertisement in the N. Y. Tribune says that the N. Y. Weekly Ledger, of May 8th contains a very interesting article on the "Poisoning of Andrew Johnson on the 4th of March," in which it is demonstrated that, instead of being under the influence of liquor on the 4th of March, an attempt had been made on the life of the Vice President, by some one who had stealthily administered a deadly poison to him.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE [illegible]

Changes

[illegible]

These men of infuriated [illegible] sit at on where they [illegible] But though they are exhausted [illegible] spiritless [illegible] any indications of real contrition [illegible] fallen beings of old, they either [illegible] plate their dismal fate or [illegible] rancorous hatred load with [illegible] curses the power that has hurled them down.

Very fortunately for the country the restoration of harmony and peace does not depend upon these men who are forsaken [illegible] own false pride and worse ambition. In the reconstruction now taking place their existence is wholly unheeded. The people of their [illegible] abandon them. One by one they are falling [illegible] the power of the Government. If they [illegible] corporal punishment they cannot escape [illegible] by which [illegible] If the country permits them [illegible] without [illegible] the neglect of their fellow men.

The Father of History speaks warningly [illegible] who deem so highly of their own prowess [illegible] they are fearless [illegible] be overmatched by [illegible] might. Of such with the faith of an [illegible] foretells the fall. A wiser than he and one who lived in still earlier times, speaks to the [illegible] in words pregnant with a still weightier meaning. The chief instigators of the rebellion—they who [illegible] began the strife—may now appreciate the wisdom of that proverb which declares that "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

IMMIGRATION INVITED BY JUAREZ.—The reports that armed colonists have been for some weeks preparing to go to Mexico no doubt considerably exaggerate the number of these adventurers. Still, it is very certain that many of the discharged veterans of the Union armies are preparing to move thither. They go at the special invitation of the Juarez Government. As that Government is the only authority in Mexico which our country recognizes emigrants from the United States cannot be considered by other powers as unlawful intruders so long as the rightful Government of Mexico extends to them a welcome. The French Government cannot with any honesty or plausibility complain if some of these emigrants should procure commissions from Juarez to engage in enterprises at sea, for the capture and destruction of French shipping.—Nor can there be so much as a remonstrance against their being permitted to enter the ports of the United States. France and England four years ago set a precedent that may prove very annoying to them hereafter. Vessels authorized by the Juarez Government may be admitted into our ports in the same way that France admitted rebel cruisers during our civil war. Others will then have a chance to see how they relish a restriction similar to that which has long been imposed on our vessels in their ports. The neutrality laws forbid our fitting out an armed force against a power with which we are at peace. These expeditions to Mexico are not legally against France, for France is not the sovereign of that country. Maximilian we do not regard at all. He is simply an interloper. The movements of our people to Mexico are in compliance with the wish of its legitimate Government and it is hard to see how they can be legally excepted to.

A TRAITOR CONDEMNS HIMSELF.—In 1859 Henry A. Wise was Governor of Virginia. In a letter concerning John Brown he then said: "I have precisely the nerve enough to let him be executed with the certainty of his condemnation. He shall be executed as the law sentences him and his body shall be delivered over to surgeons and await the resurrection without a grave in our soil. I have shown him all the mercy which he may claim." These words are now to be applied mutatis mutandis in such a way that the traitorly ex-Governor can have a clear apprehension of their meaning. Every word he then uttered now reacts upon himself. By just how much the more flagrant his treason is than that of John Brown by just so much the more ignominious does his death deserve to be. There is no need of going beyond the scope of his own argument to find reasons for condemning him.

THE MINES OF COEUR D'ALENE.—All the accounts so far received from these mines are very flattering. We copy this morning an article from the [illegible] which is [illegible] affirmatory of previous reports. We have been shown letters from the upper country which furnish additional information [illegible] We regard it as [illegible] certain that [illegible] really exist in the locality indicated. [illegible] no truth in these rumors sufficient time has elapsed to have caused them to be disproved. While there is often no foundation [illegible] of gold discoveries [illegible] remember that [illegible] that [illegible] be there are at all times strong [illegible] the [illegible] the very [illegible] streams [illegible] falling [illegible]

When wanting Henry [illegible] Wood and H. A. Wise at the time of the execution of John Brown [illegible] Wood pleads for John Brown [illegible] execution would be disastrous to the prospect [illegible] Democracy of the North [illegible] with the plank together.

[illegible] MAP MATTER.—[illegible] of the streets in Couch's addition to the city [illegible], by being numbered as a named differently from the original plat. First street, which was a continuation of Front street, is now known in all the [illegible] of the city as North Front street. [illegible] street is now North First street. [illegible] now North Second street, and so on [illegible]. [illegible] there are so few people who know of that [illegible] ridiculous blunder [illegible] cannot be corrected without loss of [illegible] of time. A business man [illegible] is told by some friend that he has [illegible]. A sign is painted for the [illegible] street and [illegible] names of the streets are [illegible] of the buildings, all for the want of [illegible] changes of the Council [illegible] Street Commissioner [illegible] the city [illegible], just because the Board [illegible] change the [illegible] the new arrangement. Portland [illegible] own business and [illegible] and state [illegible] "the authority" of the powers that be, for one correct [illegible] legally known.

[illegible] MURDERS.—From parties who have [illegible] in this city from Boise, we learn of a mysterious [illegible] lately occurred on the highway between [illegible] and Centerville. A man named Wilson was [illegible] by the road-side murdered, and two others, named [illegible] Moulton, were found [illegible]. The discovery of the bodies [illegible] excitement about the [illegible], but nothing was known about the matter as to how it [illegible]. The most plausible explanation of the [illegible] that Wilson had been killed by some highway [illegible], and that the [illegible] had most likely along the road while the body was being searched, [illegible] alarm had attempted to escape, [illegible] by fleeing to the hills, when they [illegible] and killed. The murder was committed [illegible] from the toll gate, two miles out of Placerville, in [illegible], and suspicion rested on [illegible] who had [illegible] that morning, June [illegible], [illegible] and search for them was immediately [illegible].

[illegible] IT.—The S. F. Call of the 7th says [illegible] the Board of Supervisors, Mr. Ashbury, [illegible] against the Nicholson Pavement, and is [illegible] to granting to several hundred property holders [illegible] for it, the privilege of laying [illegible] at their own expense. This [illegible] of the Board evidently [illegible] the ways of the city at all, and appears to know [illegible] the petitioners themselves what they want [illegible] that a city, among all its fathers, can boast [illegible] and considerate a person as Mr. Ashbury [illegible] we are informed that remonstrances against [illegible] cobble-stone pavement on Market street, [illegible] the Nicholson, had been sent in by people [illegible] the same Board of Supervisors. It is [illegible] the authorities of Chicago are taking up the [illegible] but we have seen no evidence [illegible] can hardly credit it, as it would [illegible] a city like San Francisco, where the friends [illegible] are most found.

[illegible] BALL.—Some ladies have advanced the suggestion that a ball, in honor of the Fourth, to wind up [illegible] of the day, would be a good movement, and [illegible] denominated a Calico Ball, and that the proceeds be devoted to some benevolent purpose. Now, [illegible] favorable to the proposition, [illegible] very poor manager to get up a ball, yet we [illegible] of seeing the ladies take part in such [illegible], and we are so well pleased to know that [illegible] much wedded to their silks but that they are [illegible] to forego the pleasure of wearing [illegible] we have a high opinion of them, and [illegible] regard to the cheap article of dress, and [illegible] to appear in their calicoes such an occasion [illegible] gentlemen versed and experienced in [illegible] parties of this character will take a hand in the [illegible], and afford the fair ones an opportunity to appear [illegible].

[illegible] COUNTRY.—Mr. Woodard completed his outfit, [illegible], plate, instruments, etc., on Monday, [illegible] day started for the upper country leaving for [illegible] trip, to procure such fine views as the [illegible] is capable of producing from the natural [illegible] plains, valleys, streams and retreats of civil [illegible] life. When he returns those who have a [illegible] idea of the regions now being explored East of [illegible] range, can have the opportunity of seeing [illegible] how badly they are mistaken, as regards its [illegible] and rapid development. One full set of the [illegible] will be retained by Mr. Woodard, and one [illegible] be taken East by Dr. S. B. Farnham, [illegible] of the New York and Idaho gold and silver [illegible].

[illegible] COUNTRY.—Henry Vaughn, the boy murderer [illegible] thief, convicted in Baker county at a late [illegible] Circuit Court for the double crime of murder [illegible] degree, and grand larceny, arrived at the [illegible] last night in charge of Sheriff Underwood [illegible] serve the remainder of his natural life a convict. [illegible] is a boy, being but 18 years of age, but by [illegible] of living, and evil associations, has become [illegible] in crime, and is nearly as much a villain as [illegible] country. He is sentenced for the killing of [illegible] Hart and the wounding of Sheriff Mad[illegible] while they were attempting the arrest of Vaughn [illegible] accomplice, who was killed at the time, for horse [illegible] in Umatilla county.

[illegible] TREASURE SHIPMENTS.—The receipts of [illegible] from the mining districts by Wells, Fargo & Co., [illegible] have been materially larger than [illegible] period since the discovery of what [illegible] press usually denominate the "Northern [illegible] the shipments are constantly increasing. [illegible] of Tuesday took nearly a quarter of a million [illegible] and that brought by Messenger Warren last [illegible] to seventy-five thousand dollars, being [illegible] shipment of the season. These [illegible] not allow dull times in the mountains. On [illegible] we believe that all the tributaries of the [illegible] yielding something to swell the aggregate.

[illegible]—The contents of the Franklin Book Store [illegible] across the street yesterday, to give room for [illegible] new brick building, to be erected on the [illegible] old pioneer structure. No use talking [illegible] will soon be played out. There are too [illegible] here for them, and times are not as they [illegible] "by a jug full." Soon our friend Mac will [illegible] his new quarters; at present, however, and [illegible] notice, he will be found two doors below [illegible], unless the weather is fine, then he [illegible] surveying his city property. Bother will [illegible].

[illegible] DR. ELWERT.—The flags of the [illegible] of the city were yesterday morning displayed [illegible] in respect of the memory of Dr. C. Elwert, [illegible] parted this life at near midnight on Tuesday. [illegible] of Co. No. 3, has been a long time [illegible] this city, and has a very large circle of ac[illegible] and friends to regret his sudden death. [illegible] been declining for years, and very rapidly for six [illegible], but was suddenly carried away at last. The [illegible] services and ceremonies will be observed at 2 [illegible] P. M., to-day, from his residence, corner of First [illegible] streets.

[illegible] COURT.—The case of Rosenheim vs. Fisher, [illegible] brought in consequence of injuries inflicted [illegible] plaintiff by the kick of a horse, owned and [illegible] a side walk in this city, on the 24th day of July 1864 [illegible], occupied the attention of Court [illegible] yesterday, when it was submitted to the jury [illegible] had been returned up to the hour of adjourn[illegible]. The case has been twice tried before, the jury disagreeing on both occasions. The case of Joseph Knott vs. [illegible] Stephens was set for trial at 9 A. M. to-day.

[illegible].—Those useful conveniences for [illegible] wear [illegible] northern latitudes, called overcoats, were not [illegible] in producing comfort in the regions about here [illegible]. Cause: a modification of the heated atmosphere [illegible] to cause a reaction in the [illegible] of [illegible] public, incident to a chilly sweat from the ethereal [illegible]. The flood-gates above were opened during Tues[illegible] night, and all day yesterday Portland streets were [illegible] deep in their native element.

[illegible] COEUR D'ALENE.—Mr. Fonda and Mr. John [illegible] or two others leave this week for Coeur d' [illegible] new mines of Northern Idaho. Mr. Fonda [illegible] Mr. John are both enterprising men and start upon [illegible] with the fullest expectations of success, [illegible] the utmost confidence in the richness of the new [illegible]. They take with them a complete outfit for six [illegible] used. Our best wishes attend them.

[illegible] MACHINE.—The boat for the dredging [illegible] has been completed and is found to be a very [illegible] work. The contractor, Mr. David [illegible], commenced putting the machinery in place on [illegible]. The boat is lying moored at the foot of D [illegible].

[illegible] FUNERAL.—The Fire Department of the city [illegible] to turn out and pay their last respects to their de[illegible] associate Dr. Elwert, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. [illegible] that there may be no confusion [illegible] by the [illegible] that the several Companies meet at their [illegible] houses early at least as half past one o'clock.

[illegible].—Capt. J. C. Ainsworth and Messrs. [illegible] and Bradford leave this morning for [illegible], and other portions of Idaho.

[illegible] AT No. 116 FRONT STREET.—Notwith[illegible] the bad weather yesterday Morgan and [illegible]'s [illegible] of war scenes was well attended from 10 o'[illegible] A. M. until 10 o'clock P. M. [illegible] some of the great[illegible] ever exhibited in Portland. [illegible] should [illegible] take their wives and children—all [illegible] in the scenes. Admission [illegible] cents. The proprietors intend leaving for the up[illegible] country within a few days, and their exhibitions [illegible] wherever it goes.

Portland Fire Department.—An adjourned [illegible] of the Board of Delegates will be held this [illegible] evening at 7½ o'clock.

J. H. BOYD, Sec'y.

THE INTERIOR.—There is but one [illegible] this morning. During the forenoon of yesterday the line was working to California, but at one or two o'clock it parted somewhere beyond Shasta. Hence we have no Eastern report. The city was full of rumors yesterday which are altogether unfounded.

The [illegible] Augusta [illegible] in a very sad con[illegible]. [illegible] in the [illegible] vessel [illegible] tried to de[illegible].

FOR SEWING MACHINES [illegible]. We copy the following [illegible] of the grand [illegible] in New York, March 6th, from Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper of March 24th:

"THE SINGER MANUFACTURING [illegible]. [illegible] of the [illegible] was [illegible] the Singer Manufacturing Company [illegible] in the procession [illegible] and [illegible]."

[illegible]

Following this was a four horse team [illegible] the wagons of the company [illegible] sewing machines [illegible] by a full band and [illegible] employees of the company. The men [illegible] with badges indicating the respective [illegible] to which they belong. Alto[illegible] whole of the [illegible] was the most select or display made by any one [illegible] in the city, and was [illegible] by any in the spell. It is in keeping, however, with the well-known [illegible] of the Singer Manufacturing Company.

THE WORD "SOZODONT," which is fast becoming a household word, is derived from the Greek and composed of two words, Sozo and Odontes. "Sozo," translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes," the teeth—"Sozodont," a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. For beautifying and preserving the teeth, hardening and invigorating the gums, and correcting all impurities of the breath it is without a peer in the world.

Sold by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers everywhere, 75 cents per bottle.

Columbian Engine Co. No. 3.—Will meet at their Engine House to-day at 11 o'clock, to attend the funeral of Dr. C. Elwert. Members of the Department are respectfully invited to attend.

Portland, June 15, 1866. A. ZEIBER, Sec'y.

Multnomah No. 2.—Members are requested to meet at the House at 1.30 P. M. this day to attend the funeral of our late Brother, Dr. C. Elwert.

A Real Remedy—Brandreth's Pills.—These Pills expel the Principle of Disease and increase the Principle of Life. Dr. Hall, of Potsdam, who has used them twenty years in his practice, says: "They are a vegetable compound which invigorate, cleanse and purify the blood, correct and regulate all the secretions and by purgation discharge the whole mass of morbid matter from the system without reducing the strength. They are admitted to be the best Purgative and Anti-Bilious Medicine, and have not their equal for Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, etc., etc., and as Purifiers and Sweeteners of the Blood they are without a rival."

THE FLORENCE
Sewing Machines

ARE NOW UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE BY FAR

THE MOST SIMPLY CONSTRUCTED
Easily Managed,
HANDSOMELY FURNISHED
and Durable
FAMILY SEWING MACHINE,
NOW IN USE.

Possessing the Most Desirable Points of all other First-Class Machines, it Surpasses them by the Simplicity of its Construction, and the Ease and Facility with which it Performs a Greater Variety of Work than all other Machines Combined.

IT HEMS, FELLS, GATHERS, BRAIDS, QUILTS, and Gathers and Sews on a Ruffle at the same time. We claim for the FLORENCE the following advantages over any other Sewing Machine:

1st. It makes four different stitches, [illegible] Lock, [illegible] Knot, [illegible] and [illegible] on the same Machine, each stitch being alike on both sides of the fabric.

2d. It has the reversible feed motion, which enables the operator, by simply turning a thumb screw, to have the work run either to the right or left, to stay any part of the seam, or fasten the ends of seams, without turning the fabric.

3d. Changing the length of stitch, and from one kind of stitch to another, can readily be done while the Machine is in motion.

4th. Every stitch is perfect in itself, making the seam secure and uniform.

5th. It has no springs, and can be used with equal [illegible].

6th. It is so simple in construction there can be no [illegible] and its simplicity enables the most inexperienced operator.

7th. It will not oil the dress of the operator, as all its machinery is on the top of the table.

8th. It is the most rapid sewer in the world—making five stitches to each revolution.

9th. It [illegible] the wonder of all, [illegible] strength and beauty.

10th. It does the heaviest or finest work with equal facility, without change of tension or [illegible].

11th. Every Machine has one of Barnum's patent hemmers attached (the right to use which we control) enabling the operator to turn any width of hem desired.

12th. There is no other Machine which will do so large a range of work as the FLORENCE.

13th. It does not require a finer thread on the under side than on the upper.

14th. The needle is more easily adjusted than in any other Machine.

15th. It will sew across the heaviest seams, or from the thinnest thickness of cloth, without change of tension or breaking of thread.

16th. It is fully protected and licensed by Elias Howe, Jr., and his Associates, and our own Letters Patent.

17th. To avoid the drudgery [illegible] close application and [illegible] the most [illegible] a large portion of work done on Sewing Machines, we now furnish each Machine with "[illegible]," which guides the work itself, and is of incalculable value, especially to inexperienced operators.

18th. While possessing the above and many other advantages, the FLORENCE is sold at corresponding prices with other first class Machines.

19th. We refrain from publishing the highly complimentary notices of the Press with which we have been favored, and place our Machine before the public, believing that an intelligent examination of its merits will fully substantiate all that we have claimed for it, and justify the assertion we now make, that it is the best Sewing Machine in the world.

20th. We Warrant every Machine to be all that we claim for it, and will give a written warranty if required.

21st. Agents wanted in all the principal cities and towns on the Pacific Coast. With a small investment of capital a profitable business can soon be established.

Wings for the angels, but feet for the men!
We may borrow the wings to find the way—
We may hope, and resolve, and aspire, and pray;
But our feet must rise, or we fall again.

Only in dreams is a ladder thrown
From the weary earth to the sapphire walls;
But the dreams depart, and the vision falls,
And the sleeper wakes on his pillow of stone.

Heaven is not reached at a single bound!
But we build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to its summit round by round.

AN INFLUENT TRAITOR.—The Richmond [illegible] the arrival in that city of Hon. Charles Faulkner. [illegible] suppose the person [illegible] is Charles J. Faulkner. We hope the Provost Marshal [illegible] has not promptly arrested this [illegible] and will hold him till the civil authorities [illegible] try him for his crimes. [illegible] according to President Johnson, is to be made an example of, and here is the chance.

This Faulkner was Minister to France under Buchanan's Administration. His treachery at Paris helped very much to induce France and England to grant belligerent rights to the rebels without delay. He was also engaged in purchasing arms for Jeff. Davis in Europe. When he returned to the United States he [illegible] an undisguised enemy of the Government which he had just ceased representing at a foreign court. He refused to take the oath of allegiance, proclaimed his hatred of the Union, and declared himself a Confederate. As such our Government held him in prison until it effected an exchange between him and [illegible], a member of Congress who was confined in the Libby prison.

When Faulkner entered Richmond in December 1861 he was greeted as a martyr, had a public reception, and made a speech in which he encouraged his hearers to hope for the speedy downfall of the Union cause, and indulged in the coarsest abuse of Lincoln and the Northern people. He removed presently to his farm in Baker County and from there served the rebels as guide through different parts of the valley, of which he knew all the roads and passes so well that he was regarded by Stonewall Jackson and by the rebel Generals also, as the best, and also the most energetic and zealous guide a rebel leader could have if he wished to surprise a Union force.

One of Faulkner's first acts on returning to Virginia, was to gratify a private enmity of his own. He led a party of rebels to the house of Judge Strother, one of his neighbors and an eminent citizen of Virginia, and himself helped to turn the aged man into the road, and set fire to his house, stables and outhouses. Before Faulkner left the place he caused it to be thoroughly destroyed—fences were burned, animals killed or carried away, buildings burned and furniture destroyed, and Judge Strother, an aged and bed-ridden man, was left to shift for himself. He died of the exposure and brutal treatment. His son, Colonel Strother, better known as "Porte Crayon," was then in the Union army, and the father was also loyal to the flag. It was out of hatred to them, for their faithfulness to their country, that Faulkner destroyed their property.

And now this perjured criminal, this malignant rebel, coolly walks into Richmond and lets his arrival be announced in the papers! Surely impudence could go no further than this. We call the attention of the proper law officers of the Government to this flagrant case. Faulkner cannot claim that he was a part of Lee's army, for he did not serve as a soldier, but only acted as guide when the rebel forces were operating in the part of the country he knew and where he could lead a destroying party to the house of some Union-loving neighbor. If Faulkner may walk the streets of any place where our flag floats, then Jeff Davis and Wigfall, and Mason and Hunter, and Slidell and Benjamin have equal rights. Such men as this ought to be made to understand that President Johnson was in earnest when he said "treason is a crime and must be punished."—N. Y. Post.

A WESTERN PHILOSOPHER.—A tanner having commenced business in one of the new towns in a youthful part of the United States, felt himself very much at a loss for an appropriate sign. After holding much deep and sapient communication with himself, he at last fixed upon hanging a calf's tail through a knot hole in his door. This he did and came to the conclusion that it was a very good and clever invention. After a short time he began to notice that a tall lean man with a thoughtful face and a bend in his back was very often intently examining the calf's tail. Day after day brought with it the same long, lean man who occupied himself with staring at the tail in the same thoughtful manner. The tanner thought the man decidedly "wanting in his upper works," and determined on questioning him as to his purpose. Throwing open his window, therefore, he began "Good morning." "Good morning," answered the stranger, without taking his eyes off the tail. "Fine weather for this time of year," again observed the tanner, determined to rouse the mysterious individual. "P'raps yer'd like some hides to-day, mister?" was the next question proposed to him. "Don't deal in them articles," was the reply. "Reckon then, p'raps, you're a parson," again remarks the imperturbable tanner. "No." "Or yer keep a store?" "No." "Well then, mister, what are yer?" "Why, I'm a philosopher. I've been looking at that tail for a blessed long time and can't for the life of me tell how that calf managed to get through that knot hole. Maybe you'll tell a feller."

EMIGRATION.—Europe is turning its face to these shores, stimulated by the magnificent prospect opening to us in the future. Emigration seems now the order of the day, and curiously enough, it is working both ways—into this country and out of it. While thousands of people of all classes are preparing to abandon Europe for the United States, a hundred and fifty thousand of the stalworth soldiers of the South who fought so splendidly, although, of course, they were overpowered by the North, are packing up their traps for Mexico. The finest elements in the whole Southern States will probably within the next twelve months have emigrated to Mexico to cultivate the gold mines, develop the resources, and build up the fortunes of that bounteous Republic. Their places will be filled in the South by some of the best material of Europe.

The iron workers, and machinists generally of England and Germany, the agriculturists from all the provinces of Ireland, exhibit a greater desire than ever to make this country their home. It is not the drones—for they never move—but the active, enterprising, and ambitious portions of the population who are coming. The immigration of the last four years was as nothing to what this year will produce. In the manufacturing towns of England skilled labor turns to this great free country for the remuneration which it cannot find at home. We see by the Irish newspapers that all the seaports there are crowded with emigrants waiting for transportation, the money having been in almost every case, furnished by their friends in America. There is plenty for them—plenty of work and a hearty welcome for them.—New York Herald.

LINCOLN'S TOMB.—The public has a confused understanding of the fact that there was an earnest struggle over the final resting place of the mortal remains of Abraham Lincoln, which was not terminated till the day of their interment; but it is not so well known as it should be that there was never any [illegible] on the part of his family, who were [illegible] averse to his burial at [illegible] on eight acres [illegible] in the centre of Springfield, but insisted that his dust should mingle with its kindred clay in the public cemetery, two miles from the whirl and roar of traffic, and not to be made the chief advertisement of a smart and growing city. [illegible] that [illegible] some of the reports indicated [illegible] simply announced the unanimous and unchanging [illegible] of the family that the [illegible] should repose in a cemetery. That [illegible] Springfield [illegible] were allowed, [illegible] some other. While doing justice to the liberality and public spirit which [illegible] the purchase of an eighty acre lot for the tomb at a cost of $[illegible]000, we must say that the [illegible] of the family seems to us that which good taste and right feeling would naturally prompt. And the monument to Lincoln will rise over his remains in Oak Ridge Cemetery.—N. Y. Tribune.

ANNA DICKINSON ON LEE.—Anna Dickinson recently spoke in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, on the murder of Lincoln, and after referring to the assassin, Booth, said:

Of the two, Lee is a viler murderer than Booth. He has not even the [illegible] excuse of [illegible]. He stands as a traitor to his flag and the murderer of [illegible] men. He has [illegible] the [illegible] of keeping [illegible] ... fighting in his own State. He every name has expired the rebel army and [illegible] out a cruel and dreadful war against humanity.

"Horses for all work" are those best adapted to general farming purposes, for plowing, hauling, &c. "Draft horses" are a heavy class of animals for very heavy work, drawing drays, &c. "Thorough-breds" are supposed to be the best running horses, and produce, crossing on good mares, a valuable improved race of roadsters and horses of all work. Doubtless they are the base of all our most excellent horses. Roadsters are the best on the road, and the fastest trotting horses for matches, for the buggy or carriage, having both speed and bottom.

The exhibitions of horses at our State Fairs have always been fine, but we have now in Oregon horses to make the exhibition superior to any which has preceded it.

The horse exhibition always attracts the attention of the crowd, being one of the chief points of the Fair. It is here that the farmers of Oregon coming from different counties can see and compare the various kinds of horses on exhibition—and they can here appreciate the difference between the fine blooded and grade stock and the miserable relics of the [illegible] which we yet see in the country.

GOOD NIGHT.—[illegible] commonplace is this expression, and yet what volumes it may speak for all future time. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the Lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL [illegible] Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, [illegible] Skin Diseases of years standing, and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, [illegible]; [illegible], Harrow road; St. Luke's, [illegible]; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agar street, Strand; London, Whitechapel road; Royal Free, Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Doctors Acton of London, Parker of Birmingham, England, and Ricord of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases. DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new [illegible] which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new [illegible] for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus instilled into the system. Look at their pallid, cadaverous [illegible] faces and their broken-down constitutions, [illegible] them for the happiness of marriage [illegible]. In this horrid situation they [illegible] until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are attended to, and before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has [illegible] his successful treatment for years and who [illegible] the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are [illegible] to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal[illegible] is the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific and medical measures, viz: Sallow pale visage, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, [illegible] of memory, hectic [illegible] pimples, [illegible] about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, night sweats, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not [illegible] should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which he has been effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily that he has ever failed to cure any case of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. Ten Dollars sent in registered letter [illegible] Wells Fargo & Co.
